- Photocopy of proof of payment of SEVIS fee For full instructions, mailing address, and the form please visit <https://www.uscis.gov/i-539>

Please note: You cannot begin full-time enrollment until you are in F-1 status, so it may be best to travel to your home country, apply for an F-1 visa, and reenter the U.S. in F-1 status to ensure that you will obtain F-1 status before your classes begin. USCIS regulations prohibit beginning a full course of study and working on campus until the change to F-1 status is approved. F-1 status cannot begin earlier than 30 days before the start date on your I-20. Should you choose to change your status by staying in the US (submitting the I-539 form), please note that processing time can take 4-6 months, and you must be able to maintain your current F-2 status until 30 days before the I-20 start date. If your F-2 status will expire prior to 30 days before your I-20 start date, your application will most likely be denied. Even though you are allowed to stay in the U.S. while the application is pending, if your application is likely to be denied, it will be better for you to travel to your home country, obtain an F-1 visa, and reenter the U.S. in F-1 status. Once you have been notified that your status change has been approved through the I-539 form, please notify your Admissions Counselor at Milligan.
